

Burlesque at dance studio

A SAUCY new attraction will be the latest addition to Maidstone's Earl Street.

Foxy Burlesque, a dance school based in Tunbridge Wells, will be running a series of classes at Mandy Ellen dance studios from next month.

The company has been teaching the Victorian tradition, popularised in recent years by performers such as Dita von Teese, pictured, for around 18 months.

An eight-week course, held between 7 and 8 pm every Wednesday, starts on October 5.

All women older than 18 are encouraged to attend the classes, regardless of ability, size and fitness level.
